

Place your business at the heart of UK digital

“

Being a BIMA member has given us credibility

Ben Gross, Electric Circus

BIMA helps startups build bigger, better known and better connected businesses.

BIMA

Join us now, visit www.bima.co.uk

Be part of our diverse membership.

Your membership provides unique access to a diverse but like-minded community to help you grow your business and upskill your workforce. Joining BIMA connects you with your peers in brands, charities, universities, agencies and other startups.

Some names you will recognise: BBC, AKQA, Ravensborne, M&C Saatchi, LV, Cancer Research, Microsoft, We Are Social, Sony Music... check out a full member listing here.

BIMA for growth

- Use BIMA events to build your network and raise your profile
- Forge productive, exciting collaborations with other BIMA members through peer to peer networking
- Access new information and opportunities through our strategic partnerships with world-leading organisations like Microsoft
- Get first access to content such as our think tanks' reports and whitepapers

BIMA for connections & prestige

- Build your network and raise your profile by speaking about your specialism at a BIMA event
- Be nominated in the BIMA 100
- Be part of digital leaders' dinners and roundtables – influence the digital agenda by joining a BIMA council or think tank
- Build your online profile on www.bima.co.uk
- Display your BIMA badge to emphasise your digital credentials
- Access to expert knowledge and advice through our councils, think tanks, whitepapers and surveys

BIMA for skills and knowledge

- Free access to briefings and masterclasses across the UK
- Join the mentoring programme
- 12 months' free subscription to The Drum

Check out this video to find out what our members say about BIMA. For more information please contact davidbutcher@bima.co.uk

Join BIMA now.

BIMA

One membership covers everyone in your organisation.